Multilingual
Chicago
Official Initiative

What?

Multilingual means many languages.

Chicago is already a multilingual city with thousands of citizens fluent in English and at least one other language.

Let's make it official!

When?

The time is now to proclaim and celebrate the many benefits our multilingualism brings to Chicago and its citizens.

How?

Sign up today!

Lend your voice to the call to make Chicago an Official Multilingual City.

Who?

We need you to make this a reality.

Lend your voice to the call Make Chicago an Official Multilingual City

Why?

Chicago speaks your language.

That means:

- Increased family unity and stability
- Thriving multilingual neighborhoods
- Access to educational excellence for families and communities
- Economic opportunities, including trade with other nations
- Official recognition within the global community

We welcome you to join us
